A Message from Our President

Greetings!

Celebrations are wonderful and we have many reasons to feel blessed. First and foremost congratulations on 12 years in operation for JLMI on 3 April. We offer grins, cheers, and fist pumps to all for your support, your patience, and your professionalism during your time with Team JLMI. We are a success because of you.

My personal celebration is that I participated (and finished) with several Team JLMI members in the annual Richmond, VA 10K race (I walked ☺). This accomplishment for me just emphasized that you should "Never Give Up." It was a wonderful event and thanks to all that represented Team JLMI – You Rock. A word of advice -- prepare first – less sore muscles after.

The weather is getting warmer and school will be out soon, so get out there and spend time with your family and friends. Live each day to your fullest, there should be no holding back because today is truly all we have – make the most of it.

As always, for the entire JLMI Senior Management Staff, use those always available open lines of communication. We are proud and happy to have each of you as part of our Team. Help us to make a great Team better.

CELEBRATE Life.

Thank You,
~L@V@r~

From the Desk of Our COO

The leadership of JLMI is most appreciative for all that you do to keep JLMI's recognitions in a positive sense.

This is the time of year the kids are getting out of school and they are full of energy and ready to enjoy the summer. Remember family time is very important to our well being. So enjoy your family time and be safe this summer.

What's Happening Around JLMI?

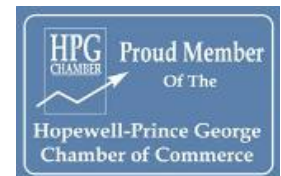

With the upcoming worldwide fielding of GCSS-Army, JLMI was tasked by Northrop Grumman, the prime for the GCSS-Army contract to find a facility and staff it in just 3 weeks. JLMI not only found, leased, and outfitted the facility at 2919 Breezewood Ave (The Forum) in Fayetteville but staffed it with the first GCSS-Army Instructor class. The facility is state of the art with internet, dual 55 inch LED screens in each classroom, and VTC capability. Our personnel stationed in Fayetteville will be responsible for fielding GCSS-Army to the South East region of the United States and several OCONUS areas.

JLMI will, once again, be supporting the Job Opportunities Basic Skills (J.O.B.S. Program) by employing a J.O.B.S. intern this summer. Students from the City of Hopewell and Prince George County schools are selected to participate in this program. The J.O.B.S. Program was established in 2005 with a goal of preparing students to enter the business world. The program consists of fourteen classes, conducted after school, focused on workplace skills including time management, business etiquette, ethics, written/verbal communication, conflict resolution, and money management. To date, over 200 students have participated in J.O.B.S. Supporting the J.O.B.S. Program provides us an opportunity to be a participant in growing the future workforce of America.

“GREEN” SPRING CLEANING TIPS

The last thing you want to do is dump toxic chemicals into the environment in the name of cleaning, right? These days, you don't have to make a special trip to the natural foods store to seek out environmentally-sensitive cleaning products. Seventh Generation, Method and Biokleen are three companies that make full lines of household cleaners, and you can find them in just about every store. These products work just as well as their conventional counterparts. Or you can stock your natural cleaning kit with homemade cleaners—making them yourself is super easy.

The basic supplies you'll need to make your own green cleaners include:

- Distilled white vinegar (sold in the cooking section of most supermarkets)
- Baking soda
- Olive oil
- Borax (sold in a box in the laundry aisle)
- Liquid castile soap (like Dr. Bronner's brand, found in most natural foods stores)
- Essential oils (super concentrated natural plant oils found in natural foods stores, usually in the cosmetics section)
- Microfiber cleaning cloths
- Newspaper

Janet Castrinos- (JLMI HQ) and Chantel Brown-(JLMI HQ) have completed another season as proud participants of the Junior Achievement Enrichment Program of Central Virginia.

The course outline was focused on "Our Families." The students learned about Family Needs, Wants, & Jobs. Each session offered very valuable lessons which prepared the students for the Terra Nova standardized tests.

Chantel's 3rd Grade Class (pictured below): The five week program included sessions that revolved around "Our City"- which provides information on economic development, local businesses, and career opportunities within a typical city. Highlights of the "Our City" curriculum are to make the students aware of the importance of education for future career development, develop the students' understanding of how workers apply their skills to jobs, and to increase the awareness level of the students on the types of workers businesses require.

We are pleased to welcome the latest members of the GCSS-Army Team within our Fayetteville, NC office.

JLMI Fayetteville consists of Warehouse Instructors, Technicians, Finance, and Admin/Travel Coordinators. Even though everyone has their separate positions within JLMI, they manage to work together as a team to fully complete the mission. From March 29th-April 5th, the Warehouse Instructors, Technicians, and Finance will become officially GCSS-ARMY certified. The top two that scored one hundred percent were Mr. Jarvis Mason and Mrs. Rhonda Darden.

St. Patty's Day is a renowned cultural and religious holiday that has its origins in Ireland. If you are Irish, there is no question about the celebration of this special day. Although not recognized as a National Holiday in the United States, St. Patty's Day is celebrated in the wearing of green and many other activities to mark the day. On St. Patty's Day, should you visit our Corporate Office, you will hear traditional Irish music and can enjoy a slice of authentic Irish Soda Bread with lots of butter. Brian Wood, SR Vice President of Logistics Programs/Business Development, has been ensuring we enjoy a St. Patty's Day celebration since coming with the company in 2007. The traditional homemade Irish Soda bread is compliments of Martha, Brian's wife. So remember and mark your calendar next St. Patty's Day to stop by our office and enjoy a bit of the Irish with us!

Contribute More

Dear Plan Sponsor,

“Contribute More” In 2012, the Great-West Retirement Services® campaigns are best described as “Letters from Your Plan.” Each campaign is written as a letter from a plan to a participant or employee and each letter carries a different design theme - a sticky note, or a message in a bottle, or an e-mail, etc. As in previous years, each campaign includes a flier, a poster, and an e-mail. In 2012, we will send the campaigns quarterly.

Share the campaign materials with your employees to encourage them to take proactive steps to achieve their retirement goals. As always, your Advisor and your dedicated Client Relationship Manager are available to provide education and enrollment support to your employees. Call your Advisor or your dedicated Client Relationship Manager to discuss your plan’s specific retirement education needs.

Best regards,

Great-West Retirement Services
